REGAL AUSTRALIA DRAWS ON LOCAL & INTERNATIONAL PRODUCT SOLUTIONS FOR DIVERSE INDUSTRIAL NEEDS

Regal Beloit Corporation is a long established and highly successful leading manufacturer of electric motors, electrical motion controls, power generation and power transmission products serving international markets emerging from its corporate headquarters in Beloit Wisconsin, USA where it was founded 60 years ago.

With its common shares quoted on the New York Stock Exchange* the company has manufacturing, sales and service facilities throughout the USA, Canada, Mexico, Europe and the Asia Pacific region.

Innovation is the lifeblood of its business and Regal Beloit owns many of the world's leading industrial product ranges and brands including Marathon motors, generators, drives and power systems together with Fasco motors, capacitors, fans and blowers, Genteq capacitors, variable speed drives, Durst drives and gearboxes and many others – see www.regalbeloit.com for a full product listing.

Throughout international markets engineering and research and development teams are in place providing local expertise, product support and customisation to meet the needs of a diversity of industrial applications.

Regal Australia headquartered in Rowville, Vic is one of seven offices Australia wide together with five modification centres operating in Victoria, New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia and Western Australia.

Regal New Zealand also has three offices in Auckland, Rotorua and Christchurch that also support a full range of local industries and projects.

Regal Australia's sales and marketing director Malcolm Henri notes that since 2010 Regal Australia has acquired a number of complementary local businesses that provide an increased product offer to a diversity of businesses both locally and throughout the Asia-Pacific region.

Regal Australia includes Fasco Australia the designer and manufacturer of a diverse range of fractional horsepower and electric motors that is able to draw on a century long history of practical and technical excellence.

Part of Fasco Australia is Torin Industries along-side Australian Fan & Motor Company now based at Rowville that also manufactures a diverse range of direct drive fans, belt drive fans and axial fans being a major supplier to HVAC original equipment manufacturers.

The former CMG Engineering Group specialists in electric motors, geared motors and AC drives also includes Transmission Australia unit as a dedicated power transmission company is geared to drive Australian industry.

The OBA division (formerly known as O'Brien AIM) is a major supplier of electrical and thermal insulating products in Australasia and is clearly a customer focused industry leader as it now includes representation of major international branded products.

Die caster Sankey Australia with a purpose built manufacturing centre in Dandenong South Vic providing custom aluminium pressure, gravity and zinc diecast components that supports a wide clientele to ISO certified quality.

Within this group Regal Cairns (formerly Marlin Coast Motor Rewinds) acquired late in 2012 now provides round the clock workshop repair and service facilities for all popular brands of electric motors, alternators and submersible pumps.

Malcolm Henri says “this snapshot of the broad product offering relevant to virtually every industrial process or manufacturing activity in Australasia makes Regal Australia a unique resource.

“Together with our strong technical support and research and development focus, products and expertise within the Regal Australia group we believe we are ready to answer that question what if you could get it all from the one company?”
